In fall 2015, Pali student leaders gathered to review the results of a school-wide survey "Taking the Human Rights Temperature of the Your School." Over 2,600 students and teachers responded to 25 questions about Pali academics, discipline, security and school environment. Based on the survey results, student leaders drafted the Pali Student Bill and Rights and Responsibilities (SBRR), guided by the rights articulated in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights*. This SBRR document is a work-in-progress and reflects a commitment to the equal opportunity, respect and rights and responsibilities of all students at Palisades Charter High School.

*The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) was adopted and proclaimed by the United Nations on December 10, 1948. The UDHR has been signed by every member of the UN, declares the rights of all people and encompasses a broad spectrum of economic, social, cultural, political and civil rights.
Agenda

10:00-10:20am – Welcome, purpose of the summit and introductions – Leslie Magana
  • Each student state in one sentence, in your opinion, what is Pali’s greatest strength and what needs the most improvement?

  • What does the survey tell us about our action plan for the Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities (SBRR)?

10:25-10:30am – Using the UDHR as a foundation – Pam Bruns
  • Refer to mini-UDHRs and “Taking the Human Rights Temperature” survey.

10:30-11:15am – Breakout Session #1
  • Based on our conversations and the survey data, what student rights and responsibilities need to be declared as rights and endorsed?

11:15-11:40am – Report back from breakout session #1

11:43am-12:17pm – Lunch

12:25-12:35 – Sharing the SBRR campus-wide – Pam Magee
  • How and when will we complete the SBRR?
  • Who else needs to be brought into this process?
  • How do we share this with students, faculty and administration to gain input and approval?
  • What mechanisms are available to guarantee the SBRR?

12:35-1:20pm – Breakout session #2
  • Develop and record answers to the above questions.
  • If time allows, revise SBRR articles based on feedback.

1:20-1:50pm – Report back from breakout session #2

1:50-2:06pm – Next steps
  • Who volunteers to continue to develop the SBRR?
  • When will our next meeting be?
  • Action items?
Taking the Human Rights Temperature of Your School

Ask students to evaluate their school’s human rights climate, i.e. take its “temperature,” by completing the survey below. Record and discuss their findings:

- In which areas does your school seem to be promoting human rights principles?
- In which areas do there seem to be human rights problems?
- How do you explain the existence of such problematic conditions? Are they related to discrimination? To participation in decision-making? Who benefits and who loses/suffers from these human rights violations?
- Have you or any other members of the community contributed to the existing climate, either to improve or to worsen it?
- What needs to be done to improve the human rights climate in your school?

Develop an action plan as a class, identifying goals, strategies and responsibilities.

Directions: Read each statement and evaluate how accurately it describes your school community. Keep in mind all members of your school: students, teachers, administrators, staff. Add up your score to determine the overall assessment for your school.
