

Human Rights Education Summer Institute

Friday, August 5, 2016 (9:00am-3:00pm)

9:00-9:10am

Meet and greet, sign-in, receive binders, nametags.

9:10-9:30am

Myrna Cervantes and Angelica Pereyra

Welcome and introductions.

9:30-9:45am

Pam Magee and Pam Bruns

Building a Human Rights Community at Pali.

9:45-10:15am

Amy Calfas, Karina Duarte, and Linda Gordon

Why Human Rights Education Is Essential, the Student Perspective.

10:15-11:15am

Nancy Flowers

Bringing Human Rights Home:

What are Human Rights Concepts and Instruments? What is HRE?

11:15-11:30am

Leslie Magana and Sandra Martin

Bringing Human Rights to Pali Students

- Review 2015 student/teacher assessment “Taking the Human Rights Temperature of Your School” and development of the Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities (SBRR).

11:30-11:55am

Breakout Groups

How Can We Disseminate and Implement the Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities?

11:55-12:25pm

Lunch.

12:25-12:45pm

Pam Magee

Report Back on Implementing the Student Bill of Rights and Responsibilities.

12:45-1:15pm

Nancy Flowers

Sample HRE Lesson Plan.

1:15-1:40pm

Lisa Saxon, Angelica Pereyra, Kristin Ghazarians

Presentations Incorporating HRE into Coursework, School Life.

1:40-2:15pm

Pairs or Groups

Develop HRE Coursework Ideas or Plans to Address School-Wide Issues.

- Select curriculum and/or school-wide projects, and where to find resources.
- Decide and name project to be developed. Do you have what you need to get started?
- Fill out brief form in binder, stating HRE project, what do you need, who you are working with.
- Hand to Pam Bruns, Nancy Flowers or Kristin Ghazarians.

2:15-2:30pm

Sandra Martin

Report Back HRE Coursework and Project Suggestions

2:30-3:00pm

Pam Magee

What comes next?