

Agenda

- 9:00-9:15 Registration and Continental Breakfast
- 9:15-9:30 Welcome, Introductions, and Symposium Goals
Landis Green, Head of Wildwood School
Pam Bruns, Director, Human Rights Watch Student Task Force
- 9:30-10:15 Keynote and panel discussion: “The UDHR in Historical and Contemporary Context”

Paul Hoffman is a human rights lawyer with the firm of Schonbrun DeSimone Seplow Harris & Hoffman in Venice, California. He is the former Legal Director of the ACLU Foundation of Southern California and former Chair of Amnesty International. He has also taught International Human Rights at Oxford University, UCLA and USC Law Schools and is a member of the HRW California Committee South.

Doug Becker, Ph.D., is Acting Director of the Peace and Conflict Studies Minor in the School of International Relations at the University of Southern California. His teaching interests include a broad range of peace and conflict issues including international human rights, conflict resolution and peace consolidation and corporate responsibility. His research focuses on the development of international law and international governance, with a particular eye toward U.S. foreign policy and attitudes about international organizations.

Wayne Glass, Ph.D., Professor of Practice of International Relations in the School of International Relations at USC, worked in Congress and in the Executive Branch, where he specialized in policies on nuclear non-proliferation and weapons of mass destruction. Dr. Glass is an expert on foreign and defense policy development within the legislative and executive branches of the U.S. government. He teaches human rights at USC.

Todd Jennings, Ph.D., professor in the College of Education at California State University San Bernardino. He teaches courses in developmental psychology, educational psychology, human diversity and social justice in education. Dr. Jennings has taught throughout Asia, Central and South Americas, and Europe. His most recent research and writing projects focus on the preparation of education professionals in the areas of human rights education as well as issues of sexual diversity in educational contexts.

- 10:15-10:30 Question and Answer Session
- 10:30-10:45 Break/Transition to Workshop Sessions
- 10:45-12:00 Workshop Sessions
- 12:00-12:15 Transition to Closing Session (boxed lunch provided)
- 12:15-1:00 Closing Session (with boxed lunch) and Concluding Remarks